

PO 105: Description of the Assistance Programs

PR 105

The Department of Human Services (DHS) administers programs that provide cash payments, food stamps, and medical coverage for people who qualify.

➡ The Department of Healthcare and Family Services (HFS) administers State medical assistance programs. DHS helps by taking applications for medical benefits and maintaining cases.

The programs, based on Federal and State laws and court rulings, are as follows:

