

PO 110.1: GA Client Potentially Eligible For AABD, TANF, or RRA

PR 110.1.

A person may not receive assistance under the GA program while receiving cash from DHS or Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Refer a GA applicant who appears eligible for assistance under the AABD, TANF, or RRA programs to the appropriate local DHS office.

An applicant potentially eligible for the AABD, TANF, or RRA cash assistance programs who by choice fails to take advantage of those benefits, is ineligible for GA. Dependents of the applicant whose eligibility depends on that of the applicant are also ineligible.

A person who has applied for AABD, TANF, or RRA cash assistance and requests GA while their application is pending, is not eligible to receive GA until they are determined ineligible for cash assistance.

When a person who is receiving GA appears to be eligible for AABD, TANF, or RRA, refer them to the local DHS office to apply. While their application is being processed, continue the GA if otherwise eligible.

If the application for TANF, AABD, or RRA is denied, conduct an immediate review to determine if continued GA eligibility exists.

