

PO 1310: Personal Injury

PR 1310.

A person injured through the wrongful conduct of a known or unknown person or entity (such as a government or corporation) may be entitled to compensation for losses suffered, whether that conduct was willful or accidental. Clients are required to report to the local GA unit any action taken to obtain compensation for injuries to themselves or their dependents.