

PO 220.11: Withdrawing an Appeal

PR 220.11.

The client or their representative may withdraw the appeal at any time during the appeal process until the final hearing decision is issued. The withdrawal of an appeal must always be in writing.

If the representative has Power of Attorney, the client cannot withdraw the appeal without their consent, except in one instance: during the appeal hearing if the representative is not present and the client wants to withdraw the appeal, the withdrawal can be accepted.

