

1410.3: Residents of Other States

If it appears a GA applicant, whether eligible or ineligible, is not a resident of Illinois, but will suffer great hardship unless assistance is provided, GA may be given for the temporary period of time the need exists. If the applicant is a resident of another state, upon request by the applicant, transportation to their place of residence may be provided, together with support during the journey.