A graduate of Stanford University and the University Of Illinois College Of Law. Bob followed in the footsteps of his father and grandfather by returning to his hometown of Princeton in 1974 to practice law in the family law firm. His son, Andrew, joined the firm as a lawyer in 2009. Bob's practice is primarily centered in real estate, local governmental law, estates and estate planning, and commercial business and zoning matters. He is currently immediate past President of the Illinois Township Attorneys Association. He has over 36 years' experience representing more than two dozen townships in Bureau County and surrounding counties.
